On the Job!

It's been a fabulous but busy summer this year. I really enjoyed my time in Cape Breton, at the Gaelic College and spending time with my friends and family.

In this newsletter, I'll be showing off some pictures of our latest concerts and ceilidhs, don't be surprised if you catch a glimpse of YOU enjoying the music, either by dancing or just tapping your feet. Stay tuned for a busy autumn!

My Web Site!

<http://www.SandyMacIntyre.com>

My web site sure seems to be a hit with many of you... the visitor counter reads over 6,200 hits! Keep on visiting and let me know what you think about it too!

I always look forward to reading your comments in the guestbook section.

I've added an online calendar/agenda which you can print a month at-a-glance, of our activities; you can even get reminders by email of our upcoming events!

Keep tuned to my website for any new events at which the band and I will be performing there will be many last minutes changes so keep checking back regularly.

Thank you for your continued support and friendships.

Sandy

Pictures!

A gentleman visiting a small town walks into a pub....

A man to his left says "hey buddy, can you spot me twenty dollars until payday"....

The gentleman responds "when exactly is pay day?"

The man says... "I don't know you're the one with the job!"

Here are some pictures of the fun we, and our fans, have had at our recent performances... Are you here?

To get a better look and for a lot more pictures, check out my web site!
